

SOLOMON HESS

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

MANAGING GOOD CAPITAL WELL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Solomon Hess Capital Management continues to promote job creation by investing in 342 small business loans in 2015

Falls Church, Virginia – January, 2016 – Solomon Hess managed entities invested $220 million in 342 US-based small business loans in 2015. These small businesses were primarily located in lower income communities and helped create over 6,500 jobs. Since inception in 2004, Solomon Hess Capital Management has invested $1.381 billion in over 2,100 loans which has assisted in the creation and retention of over 31,000 jobs throughout the country.

“Solomon Hess Capital Management is proud of our 11 year track record of creating liquidity for the small business and community development lending sector. In 2016, we will continue to invest in small businesses that promote job creation, retention, and improvement throughout lower income communities across America,” said William Einstein, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Compliance Officer of Solomon Hess Capital Management.

About Solomon Hess Capital Management

Solomon Hess is an alternative asset manager located in Falls Church, Virginia that specializes in investing in the community impact sector. Their investors include institutional investors seeking Economically Targeted Investments and accredited individual investors seeking an absolute return strategy. For more information visit www.SolomonHess.com

Media Contact: Isaac Fradin

(703) 637-8509